

The Confucius Institute in Chicago

WORKSHOP

Using CPS Chinese Curriculum to Help with Your Lesson Plans

By MAJIC Mandarin Writing Team

CPS Office of Language and Cultural Education has developed a K-12 Chinese curriculum with the funding of Foreign Language Assistance Program from the United States Department of Education. In accordance with the increasing demands of our school administrators and teachers, a workshop is planned to introduce the concept behind the curriculum and provide examples of lesson plans based on the curriculum. Participating CPS Chinese teachers will get a copy of the complete curriculum.

Saturday, January 23, 2010

10:00 AM – 12:00 NOON

The Confucius Institute in Chicago
Walter Payton College Prep High School
1034 N. Wells Street, Room 106 – Chicago, IL 60610
TEL (773) 534-0021 / FAX (773) 534-0024

2 CPDUs

FREE

CPS Chinese Language Teachers are welcomed to participate!

Please send your RSVP to Michelle Rosales by Thursday, January 21, 2010.
(TEL: (773) 534-0021 / E-Mail mrosales13@cps.edu)

*The Confucius Institute in Chicago is a partnership between:
Chicago Public Schools Office of Language and Cultural Education,
The Office of Chinese Language Council International and East China Normal University, Shanghai*

www.confuciusinstitutechicago.org